3d<sup>2</sup> Many people involved in violent activity. Hot sweat dangerous. High adrenalin combat tension.

Impression of a person being held captive in a room of the Sound of gunfire feels reasonably well - ~~the other~~ W. Elderly, after extremely stressful period. People who are not visibly pressuring/pressing him are occupied in the ongoing activities elsewhere. Lightly guarded, not going anywhere. Bored, beyond being apprehensive. <sup>feel like</sup> Can't do anything to him that hasn't been done to ~~disinvolvement~~, depes him, or cause him to give up hope. Individual is feeling contemplative & obstinate; cooperative as little as possible.
Pretend to despise captors but has a secret grudging respect for them.
This person's existence is pretty much a sick issue that no one much cares about at the moment. He's continually pre-occupied of how he might get away. He ~~still~~ likes his ~~present~~ guard.
Individ. is ~~not~~ wearing a light purple pullover shirt "like" a bush shirt. Room enclosed in glass to be 2nd or 3rd floor that once had windows but have been sealed up. There is a door entering on a hall leading to stairs going into interior of ~~some~~ eventually leading out to street. Person knows going out that way not good idea, since no streets are safe and getting lost out there would be no better than being stuck in here.
